Gold is where you find it . . .

August 2014

I just remembered something I was supposed to tell you: We're having our annual class reunion, celebrating 65 years since graduation, and we want YOU to come. You may have noticed that you're not getting any younger, so it's important to get yourself together and come to visit with some of your oldest friends. I hope to see you there. I'll be the old bald guy with the well-worn sport jacket and no tie (and no beard).

P.S. The Academy Awards isn't the only place that you will see CELEBRITIES walk the "red carpet"! You're in store for a real treat as we reminisce "Movies of yesteryear" ...

If you'd like to donate toward postage/miscellaneous expenses, please indicate below.

Also, check out our recently up dated web site: <http://1949.nhsclass.com> Here you will find our Spice Book, Hi-Eye Publications, biographies of '49er Hall of Champions/and Fame Inductees and many pictures from our past reunions; you are in for a real surprise!!
